Dear Mrs. Manley:

This is in reply to your letter of March 12, concerning the coming baseball season. I am very glad to hear you are going to play this year.

I would like very much to play for you, and if you will send me a contract, I will send you my reply.

I have kept myself in good physical condition
so I won't need much of a workout, except to limber up my arm.

Thank you for remembering me.

I remain,

Cordially yours,

John Davis
